Numb. 7664.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday January 3. to Saturday January 7. 1737.

Whitehall, January 7.

THE humble Addreſs of the Lord-Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons and Citizens of the City of Dublin: And alſo that of the Provoſt, Fellows, and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth near Dublin, having been tranſmitted by his Grace the Duke of Devonſhire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, have by him been preſented to his Majeſty; who was pleaſed to receive them very graciouſly.

Vienna, Jan. 1, N. S. Two Days ago arrived here a Muſcovite Courier, who brought a Plan of Operations for the next Campaign, which has been examined this Morning in a great Council held in the Emperor's Preſence, at which the Grand Duke aſſiſted; and a Courier is to be ſent in a Day or two to Petersbourg with the Reſult of it. The Empreſs Amelia having been ſome Days indiſpoſed, found herſelf better on Saturday laſt; grew worſe the next Day, and was in a very dangerous State on Monday laſt; but being let Blood a third Time, ſhe is now thought to be quite out of Danger.

Dreſden, Jan. 1, N. S. This Day an Agreement of Marriage between the Princeſs Royal the King's eldeſt Daughter, and Don Carlos, was declared, and the Court appeared in great Splendor on this Occaſion. This Affair has been negociated at Vienna, and Ambaſſadors are ſoon expected here to ask her in Form in Marriage for Don Carlos; and it is thought that the Marriage will be made by Procuration here.

Dreſden, Jan. 8, N. S. It is ſaid that M. Fuenclara, the Spaniſh Ambaſſadour at Vienna, will be the Perſon that will be ſent hither to eſpouſe the Princeſs Royal by Proxy in Don Carlos's Name; but the Time is not yet fixed, though M. Fuenclara is ſoon expected here, and it is generally ſaid ſhe will be conducted by that Ambaſſador after the Marriage to Naples through Tirol; though ſome ſay the Duke of Liria will be ſent to meet her at Trent, and to conduct her the reſt of the Way.

Hambourg, Jan. 10. N. S. The Winter is very ſevere, and it freezes ſo hard, that not only Sledges, but all Sorts of Carriages, with Merchants Goods, paſs over the Elbe, upon the Ice, to Harburg and other Places. Laſt Wedneſday died, after a lingring and painful Diſtemper, in an advanced Age, Lieutenant-General Albedyl, Commandant of this City. Some Hours before his Death, when he was paſt all Hopes of Recovery, an Expreſs was diſpatch'd to his eldeſt Son, his Britannick Majeſty's Privy-Counſellor of the Finances at Hanover, who is expected here this Evening.

Hague, Jan. 14. N. S. The Marriage of Don Carlos with the Princeſs of Poland or Saxony, has been notified to the States, by a Letter from the King of Poland, deliver'd to them Yeſterday by M. Desbroſſes his Envoy, who has been complimented thereupon this Morning by their Agent. The States of Holland will begin their Aſſembly To-morrow; the greateſt Part of their Deputies are already in Town, whom Count Uhlfeldt is ſoliciting very hard, to obtain their Conſent for the Loan demanded by the Emperor.

Whitehall, January 6. 1737.

Whereas by an Inquiſition taken at Fontmel Magna, in the County of Dorſet, on the 18th Day of December laſt paſt, before one of the Coroners of the ſaid County, it has been found, That in the Night between Thurſday and Friday the 15th and 16th Days of the ſaid Month of December, as John Tothevill was going from his Houſe in Fontmel Magna aforeſaid, to Weſt Lodge in the Pariſh of Iwerne Minſter, in the ſaid County, he was aſſaulted by a Perſon or Perſons unknown, who, with a large Stick, or ſome other weighty Weapon or Weapons, ſtruck him on the Head ſeveral Blows, whereby his Scull was fractured acroſs the Crown of his Head, from Ear to Ear, to the Length of ten Inches, and upwards, of which he languiſhed till Friday the 16th Day of the ſaid Month of December, about Ten of the Clock in the Forenoon, and then he thereof died; and that the ſaid Perſon or Perſons him the ſaid John Totheville did wilfully and maliciouſly kill and murder: His Majeſty, for the better Diſcovery of the Perſons concern'd in the ſaid Murder, is pleaſed to promiſe his moſt gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Perſon who actually committed the ſame) who ſhall diſcover his Accomplice or Accomplices, ſo they or any one of them may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ly

HARRINGTON.

And as a further Encouragement, Major Jonathan Driver, dwelling in Queen Square, Weſtminſter, does hereby promiſe a Reward of Fifty Pounds, to any Perſon or Perſons making ſuch Diſcovery as aforeſaid, to be paid upon the Conviction of the Offender or Offenders.

Jona. Driver.

Whitehall, January 3, 1737-8.

Whereas Mr. Richard Warre, of Piggotts in the County of Bucks, received a Letter on Friday the 30th of December laſt paſt, about Four o'Clock in the Afternoon, threatning to take away his Life, and burn his Houſe, Barns, and Reeks, if he did not lay the Sum of Fifty Pounds at the Root of an Oak Tree near his Dwelling-houſe that very Night. His Majeſty for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice, the Perſons concerned in ſo heinous a Crime, is pleaſed to promiſe His moſt gracious Pardon to any one of them, who ſhall diſcover his Accomplice or Accomplices, ſo as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HARRINGTON.

And as a farther Encouragement to ſuch Diſcovery, I the ſaid Richard Warre do hereby promiſe, that whoever ſhall diſcover the Perſon or Perſons concerned in Writing the ſaid Letter, ſo as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, ſhall have a Reward of Fifty Pounds on ſuch Conviction.

Ri. Warre.

December 6, 1737.

THE under-mentioned Persons claiming the Benefit of the Act lately passed for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, the following Notices have been brought to the Printer of the London Gazette, to be inserted in this Paper, and are herein inserted in Obedience to the said Act.

Whereas John Hide, late of the parish of Shinfield in the County of Berks, Yeoman, was a Prisoner for Debt in the Goal of his Majesty's Palace Court at Winsor in the said County, on the first day of January, in the Year of our Lord 1736, where he still remains. We therefore John Wentworth, of the Parish of St. James Clerkenwell, in the County of Middlesex, Gent. and Joseph Brewer, of the Parish of St. Sepulchre, London, Distiller, two of the principal Creditors of the said John Hide, do hereby give Notice to all Persons whom it may concern, that we intend to cause him the said John Hide to be brought before his Majesty's Justices of the Peace, at the next General or Quarter Sessions happening in thirty days from the date hereof, to be held for the said County of Berks, that he may then and there be obliged to deliver in upon Oath a Schedule of his Estate and Effects, in order to their being vested and assigned and equally divided for the Benefit of his Creditors. In Witness whereof we have hereunto set our Hands the 6th day of January, in the Year of our Lord 1737. John Wentworth. Jos. Brewer.

Whereas Richard Broomhall, late of St. Andrew's Holbourn, Mason, was committed to the Wood-street Compter, London, since the first day of January 1730, and was on the first day of January last, and now is a Prisoner in the said Prison of Wood street, at my Suit. I do intend, at the next Sessions of the Peace to be held for the City of London, at the Guildhall in the said City, on the 20th day of February next, to compel the said Richard Broomhall to be and appear then and there before his Majesty's Justices, to the End that he may be obliged to deliver in on Oath and subscribe a Schedule of his Estate and Effects, having this Day given him Notice thereof, as also to the Sheriffs of the City of London, and the Keeper of the said Compter. And I do hereby give this Notice, that the other Creditors of the said Richard Broomhall may be apprized thereof, and come in for their distributive Shares of the said Prisoner's Estate and Effects. Godfrey Gimbart.

The under-mentioned Persons being Prisoners in the Custody of the Warden of the Fleet Prison, hereby give Notice, that they intend to take the Benefit of an Act of Parliament made in the Tenth Year of the Reign of his Majesty King George the Second, intitled, An Act for Relief of Insolvent Debtors, at the General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held at the Guildhall of the City of London, in and for the said City, or at the Adjournment thereof, that shall happen next after thirty days from the Publication hereof, viz. Robert Bonow, late of Carnaby Market, in the County of Middlesex, Fishmonger. William Drew, late of St. Ann's Soho, Fruit-seller.

The following Person being a Fugitive for Debt, and beyond the Seas on the 1st of January last, and having surrendred himself to the Keeper of the Prison of Ludgate, hereby gives Notice, that he intends to take the Benefit of the late Act for Relief of insolvent Debtors, at the next General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held for the City of London, next after 30 Days from the Publication hereof, viz. William Bell, late of Cree-Church parish, Leadenhall street, London, Carpenter.

The following Person being a Prisoner for Debt in Ludgate in the City of London, gives Notice, that he intends to take the Benefit of the late Act of Parliament made for Relief of Insolvent Debtors, at the next General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held at Guildhall, in and for the said City, or at the Adjournment thereof that shall first happen next after thirty days from the Publication hereof, viz. James Collins, late of Cheapside, in the Parish of St. Michael le Querne, Pastry Cook.

The undermentioned Person being a Fugitive for Debt, and beyond the Seas on the first Day of January 1736, and having surrendred himself to the Keeper of the Prison upon Ouzebridge, in the City of York, hereby gives Notice, that he intends to take the Benefit of the late Act of Parliament for Relief of Insolvent Debtors, at the next General Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held at Guildhall in and for the said City of York and County of the same, or at the Adjournment thereof, next after thirty days from the Publication hereof, viz William Appleby, late of the city of York, Mariner.

N. B. If any Person in the foregoing List of Prisoners shall find on the Perusal of this Gazette that there is any Error, such Error shall upon Notice be rectified in the next Gazette, Gratis.
